

MARCH 26, 1808.

Read the first and second time, and committed to a committee of the whole house on Wednesday next.

A Bill,

Supplemental to the act, intituled "An act to establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and to repeal the acts heretofore passed on the subject."

1 Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every 3 alien who shall arrive within the United States after the passing of 4 this act, may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States,
5 on complying with the conditions specified in the act to which this 6 is a supplement: Provided nevertheless, That he shall be entitled 7 to the rights, benefits and privileges of a citizen, for and during 8 his actual residence within the United States or their territories, and 9 no longer.

1 Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any citizen of the 2 United States shall, after the passing of this act, expatriate him-
3 self according to the laws of any of the individual states, he shall ipso
4 facto be deemed an alien, and shall moreover be rendered incapable
5 of becoming a citizen of the United States.
